of Indians imprisoned in US, UK and other developed countries is annexed. (See below)

(b) As soon as the Indian Embassy learns of the arrest of an Indian national, a request is made to me host Government for consular access. An official of the Embassy visits the detainee to ascertain the circumstances leading to the arrest. Where necessary, the Embassy takes up the matter with the host Government for speedy and fair trial and also for review or remission of the sentence in deserving cases.

Statement

Number of Indians Languishing in foreign jails

Country	No. of Indians in jail
Australia	02
Canada	04
Denmark	02
Germany	224
Italy	06
Japan	05
New Zealand	04
Spain	80
Switzerland	01
United Kingdom	189
USA	58
TOTAL:	575

U.S. President visit to India

2632. SHRI RUMANDLA RAMACHANDRAIAH: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the President of U.S. has agreed to visit India soon;

(b) if so, whether Government have received any intimation from the US;

(c) by when the visit is likely to be; and

(d) what are the issues to be discussed?

THE MINISTER OF STATE INTHE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI OMAR ABDULLAH): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The U.S. President has written to the Prime Minister, accepting his invitation to visit India.

(d) The visit would provide the two sides the opportunity to further strengthen their shared commitment to build a more meaningful and mutually beneficial relationship between India and the United States.

Re-occupation of Sapru House

2633. SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the former President of the Indian Council of World Affairs alongwith his supporters tried to re-occupy Sapru House in April, 2001;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether any FIR was lodged with the police by the Ministry in this regard;

(d) if so, the present legal position of the Sapru House Complex and the Status of the Former President vis-a-vis ICWA; and

(e) the steps taken to prevent trespassing of ICWA premises in future?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI OMAR ABDULLAH): (a) to (c) and (e) Shri Harcharan Singh Josh, the ex-President of the erstwhile Indian Council of World Affairs, alongwith a few other of his followers, entered the Sapru House premises at around 12.45 pm. on 4.4.2001, took over the keys from the Chowkidar on duty and occupied the room adjacent to that of the Director General in full glare of the media, who had been reportedly called by Shri Josh in advance to cover the incident. An FIR for criminal trespass was immediately lodged by the Director General of the Indian Council of World Affairs with the Tilak Marg Police Station, New Delhi. With the help of the police and after a six hour stand-off, Shri Josh and others were evicted peacefully from the premises by the evening. After the incident, security guards from a private agency have been appointed for round-the-clock vigil at the main gates. The ICWA chowkidars have been advised to be more vigilant. The local police authorities have also been requested to provide adequate protection.

(d) The present legal status of Sapru House Complex is governed by the Sub Section 5 (i) (a) (reproduced below) of the Indian Council of World Affairs (Second) Ordinance, 2001 (No. 3 of 2001) promulgated on 8th May, 2001;

"5.(1) On and from the appointed day,—

(a) all properties and other assets vested in the existing Council immediately before that day, shall vest in the Council;"

In view of Sub-Section 7(i)(a) of the same Ordinance which specifies that the Union Minister of External Affairs shall be the President of the Council, ex-officio, Shri Josh has no locus standi in the Council.